

Specifications

It is also called a safety razor because the blade lies protected within the plastic casing, leaving only the cutting edge exposed.

- Handle and head: one piece, moulded plastic
- Handle: length +/- 8cm
- Blade: stainless steel, inserted inside the head, only the cutting edge of blade is exposed; comb design under the blade: a small comb is placed under the blade to ensure optimal performance.

- Cap: protective cap for the razor head.

Unit presentation:	1 razor, single-use, not sterile.
Packaging:	Box with 100 units.
Labelling:	Product name, size, reference number, manufacturer's name and address, and CE marked and reference number of notifying body.
Other requirements:	Hygienically clean for medical use.